

The local broadcasters and the NAB have encourage legislation for too long that prevents other forms of broadcast technology from competing. The end result is there has been no improvement in broadcast signal quality or programming. The barring of local content from satellite sources will only permit this to continue. The NAB and its' members should instead be encourage to compete and improve signal quality and programming.
I implore you to reject this effort and encourage competition.

Thank you,
Gene Altobelli
Tucson AZ